

A. The bound never moves with angle precision — the actual count does

The dashed floor is a rank condition and is identical in all four columns of each panel. $p = 2$ and 3 sit on it at every precision; $p = 5$ and 6 sit far above and close toward it as the angle is read more precisely. That gap is conditioning. 4 objects per cell, 14-round budget.